

Dear Prime Minister,

Joint Academy Parliament Meeting

I know that as an Academy Parliament you have been looking at ways of ensuring that children, both within your academy and across the trust, are encouraged to be active for at least 30 minutes a day. I asked you to come up with an idea that we could implement across all of our academies to ensure that there are more opportunities for physical exercise every day and we discussed that there was a budget of £4000 to achieve this.

I would now like to invite 2 representatives from your Academy Parliament to attend a Sport, Health and Well Being Summit. At this meeting you will be given 5 minutes to present your final proposal for how you believe this money could be best spent. After we have heard from and discussed all 10 ideas (1 per academy) we will take a vote on the idea that we all wish to see happen.

The Summit is to take place at the Outwood Institute of Education, Doncaster from 10am - 12pm on Thursday 14th February. You will need to decide on who should represent your academy and ensure that they can confidently present your idea within the 5 minute time slot.

The agenda for the meeting is as follows:

- 10am - Welcome and introduction
- 10.10 - Presentation from Lofthouse Gate followed by questions
- 10.20 - Presentation from Littleworth Grange followed by questions
- 10.30 - Presentation from Brumby Junior followed by questions
- 10.40 - Presentation from Darfield followed by questions
- 10.50 - Presentation from Kirkhamgate followed by questions
- 11.00 - Presentation from Park Hill followed by questions
- 11.10 - Presentation from Newstead Green followed by questions
- 11.20 - Presentation from Greystone followed by questions
- 11.30 - Presentation from Bell Lane followed by questions
- 11.40 - Presentation from Ledger Lane followed by questions
- 11.50 - Final summing up and vote
- 12.00 - Close

I hope that you are able to attend and look forward to you confirming this as soon as possible.

Best wishes,

Mr Wilson
